SOUTHWESTERN

Designed and individually handbeaded by Santa Fe Navajo artisan, Thomas Begay, these exquisitely detailed collars allow the client to select from a wide variety of patterns and colors to create one of a kind pieces of wearable art.

KENYAN

Designed and created by artisans of the Maasai tribe in Kenya, these one of a kind collars are not only beautiful, high quality products, but also assist over 100 families in Africa to build a better life. All artisans are appropriately compensated and encouraged to influence product design.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

Our goal in creating The Sundance Collection is a direct result of our great love of dogs, as well as our desire to give back to the amazing artisans and their tribes that make these unique products possible. A percentage of all profits also go directly to a variety of animal rescue charities in support of their important work.
